

Dr. James S. Brown announces "Odyssey for Equality"
Lecture Tour for Western Canada - July 10-Aug 1

PRESS RELEASE: Monday July 8, 2013

ECMAS is pleased to announce sponsorship of Dr. James S. Brown "Odyssey for Equality" Lecture Tour across Western Canada beginning on Tuesday July 2 – together with local groups including the Canadian Association for Equality (CAFE) of Ontario, Regina Shared Parenting Network (RSPN), Men's Rights Edmonton (MR-E) and the Parental Alienation Awareness Network (PAAN) of Alberta.

Dr. Brown's book "Rescuing our Underachieving Sons" addresses the problem of boys who are underachieving in and disengaged from school, and the long-term consequences of our society's apparent lack of interest in such issues that disproportionately impact boys. He will be presenting a lecture on this topic – as well as selling his book - at 8 locations across Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta over the following 30 day Tour. He will be in:

Winnipeg - Wed July 10@7pm at Sir William Stephenson Branch Public Library
Regina - Sat July 13@1030am at George Bothwell Branch Public Library
Lethbridge - Sat July 20@1030am at Crossings Branch Public Library
Calgary - Tues July 23@630pm at Memorial Park Branch Public Library
Red Deer - Sat July 27@1030am at Snell Auditorium, Main Branch Public Library
Edmonton - Mon July 29@7pm at Edmonton Rm, Stan Milner Branch Public Library
Lloydminster - Wed July 31@7pm at Main Branch Public Library
Saskatoon - Thurs Aug 1@7pm at Frances Morrison Auditorium Main Public Library

Dr. Brown M.A, M.Ed, Ed.D is retired after a 40 year career in Education as Teacher, Senior Administrator, Educational Researcher, Writer and Associate Professor of Education in Canada and the U.K.
